

Aquila Wind

Renewable Energy from ACEN

Project layout

The Aquila Wind project consists of up to 48 wind turbines located near Mount Aquila, south-east of the township of Stuart Town, in Dubbo Regional Council.

Key components of the project include underground electricity cabling connecting turbines to an electricity substation and high voltage transmission line that will connect to the National Electricity Market (NEM).

www.aquilawind.com.au

info@aquilawind.com.au

1800 434 094

ACEN | Australia

Aquila Wind turbine locations

